Employment History

6. Using the format provided in Attachment "A" please start with your current employment or most recent employment, self-employment, and periods of unemployment for the 20 years immediately preceding the filing of this Application.

Educational Background

7. List names and addresses of high schools, colleges and graduate schools (other than law school) attended; dates of attendance; certificates or degrees awarded; reason for leaving.

Provo High School, 1125 N. University Ave., Provo, Utah 84604 – 1975–1978. I moved from Boulder, Colorado to Provo, Utah, during the summer prior to my sophomore year in high school. We moved to Provo, Utah, so that my father could teach at the J. Reuben Clark Law School. I played tennis all three years and lettered in the sport. I obtained my High School Diploma.

Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah – 1978– 979. After my freshman year at Brigham University, I suspended my schooling to go on a two-year mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, to the Philippines. Upon my return, I then attended one more complete year at Brigham Young University 1981-1982. I married my high school sweetheart and decided to move to Salt Lake to complete my education at the University of Utah. This allowed us to be at least 30 miles away from both of our parents.

University of Utah, Salt Lake City, Utah – 1982-1984. I obtained my Bachelor of Arts Degree with an English Major and a History Minor.

8. Describe significant high school and college activities including extracurricular activities, positions of leadership, special projects that contributed to the learning experience.

I moved to Provo a month before high school started and did not know a soul. I made the tennis team as a Sophomore and ended up playing No. 1 singles my junior and senior years. I also started dating a girl in high school, who eventually became my wife. After one year of college at Brigham Young University, I served a two-year mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, in the Philippines, Davao Mission. This experience was transformational. I left thinking that the world revolved around me and came home humbled and appreciative of the great people of the Philippines.

9. List names and addresses of law schools attended; degree and date awarded; your rank in your graduating class; if more than one law school attended, explain reason for change.

College of Law at Willamette University, Salem Oregon – 1984-1985. I attended my first year of law school at Willamette, and then transferred to the University of Utah College of Law to complete my last two years. This was done for financial reasons, as my wife was pregnant and due with our first child. I was a resident of Utah and was able to pay in-state tuition. When I left Willamette I was in the top 15% of my class. I also worked during my first year of law school.

University of Utah College of Law, Salt Lake City, Utah – 1985-1987. I obtained my Juris Doctor Degree from the University of Utah. There was no class ranking at that time. With the birth of my first child, I worked during law school to support my family.

- 10. Indicate whether you were employed during law school, whether the employment was full-time or part-time, the nature of your employment, the name(s) of your employer(s), and dates of employment.

During my first year of law school I worked part-time at State Accident Insurance Fund (SAIF) in Salem, Oregon, to help pay for my schooling and provide for my family. This provided extensive writing experience with an emphasis in writing briefs for the Workers' Compensation Board.

During my second and third years of law school at the University of Utah, I worked part-time at Parker, McKeown & McConkie in Salt Lake City, Utah. This helped pay for my education as well as to continue to provide for my family. My employment provided me writing and research experience with a main emphasis in Personal Injury.

- 11. Describe significant law school activities including offices held, other leadership positions, clinics participated in, and extracurricular activities.

I worked during all three years of law school to help pay for my education and provide for my family. Thus, I did not have a lot of extra time to participate in extracurricular activities.

Law Practice

- 12. State the year you were admitted to the Nevada Bar.

1987

- 13. Name states (other than Nevada) where you are or were admitted to practice law and your year of admission.

Utah - 1989

- 14. Have you ever been suspended, disbarred, or voluntarily resigned from the practice of law in Nevada or any other state? If so, describe the circumstance, dates, and locations.

No

- 15. Estimate what percentage of your work over the last 5 years has involved litigation matters, distinguishing between trial and appellate courts. For judges, answer questions 16-20 for the 5 years directly preceding your appointment or election to the bench.

Over the last five years 100% of my time has been involved in litigation matters. This has included a significant amount of time serving as a Short Trial Judge, Arbitrator, and Mediator.

16. Estimate percentage of time spent on:

- (1) domestic/family and juvenile law matters: 5%
- (2) civil litigation: 94%
- (3) criminal matters: 1%
- (4) administrative litigation: 0%

17. In the past 5 years, what percentage of your litigation matters involved cases set for jury trials vs. non-jury trials?

98% of my litigation matters were set for jury trials, or eventual jury trials after arbitration, and 2% were non-jury trials.

18. Give the approximate number of jury cases tried to a conclusion during the past five years with you as lead counsel. Give the approximate number of non-jury cases tried to a decision in the same period.

Jury cases tried to a conclusion - 4
Non-jury cases tried to a decision - 1

19. List courts and counties in any state where you have practiced in the past 5 years.

Eighth Judicial District Court, State of Nevada, Clark County
Third Judicial District Court, Salt Lake County, State of Utah
United States District Court for the District of Nevada, Clark County
Superior Court of Arizona, Maricopa County
Second Judicial District Court, State of Nevada, Washoe County
Family Court, Clark County, Nevada
Justice Court, Clark County, Nevada

20. List by case name and date the five cases of most significance to you (not including cases pending in which you have been involved), and list or describe:

- a. case name and date,
- b. court and presiding judge and all counsel
- c. the importance of each case to you and the impact of each case on you,
- d. your role in the case.

CASE NO. 1

Case name and date: Orvel Dawson v. Michael Robert McCabe; Case No. 88-A-262233; September 27, 1990.

Court and presiding judge and all counsel: Eighth Judicial District Court, State of Nevada, Clark County, Dept. 15; Judge Nancy Becker; Plaintiff represented by Daniel Thomas Foley, Esq., Defendant represented by Blair C. Parker, Esq.

The importance of each case to you and the impact of each case on you: This was my first trial, and a jury trial at that. Additionally, I was lead Counsel and only Counsel for Defendant. This case had originally been handled by a partner, who had initially advised the insurance carrier for my client that the case did not have much value, despite liability being adverse. This recommendation was also done prior to any discovery having been initiated. Plaintiff lived in Oregon, and thus his deposition was taken telephonically. Therefore, I had never seen nor met the Plaintiff prior to trial.

I had prepared thoroughly, and midway through the trial felt that things were going well. However, by the time I finished cross examining the Plaintiff I already felt concerned for the trial outcome. Plaintiff came across to the jury as likeable, honest, and genuine. He even appeared to minimize his own pain and suffering despite his doctors indicating otherwise. By the time of closing, I found myself wanting to give him money. The jury felt likewise and ended up awarding him $50,000.00.

After this trial I realized I would never try a case without personally observing the Plaintiff, and if possible, the witnesses that were anticipated to be called. Unfortunately, I had underestimated the positive and negative impressions live witnesses can make when a jury and counsel can actually see their demeanor and facial expressions on the stand and in the courtroom. Additionally, during this trial I also should have stopped my examination without asking that one last question to which I didn't know the answer ahead of time. I vowed never to make that mistake again. I also realized the value and importance of professionalism, by watching Mr. Foley's actions throughout the pendency of this case. While he zealously represented his client, he was extremely ethical, and never failed to extend professional courtesies nor to treat me as anything other than a colleague. I vowed to follow that example in my dealings with opposing counsel.

Your role in the case: Lead Counsel and only Counsel.

CASE NO. 2

Case name and date: Ruth Curtis, George Curtis, Et al v. Clark County School District, Richard Ebarb, and Kim Jefferson; Case No. 96-A-360277; August 22, 2000.

Court and presiding judge and all counsel: Eighth Judicial District Court, State of Nevada, Clark County, Dept. 19; Judge Michael Douglas; Plaintiff represented by Robert E. Murdock, Esq., Defendant represented by Blair C. Parker, Esq.

The importance of each case to you and the impact of each case on you: This was one of the most stressful and emotional cases that I have tried. It involved the death of 13-year-old Kimberly Curtis while at school, who unknowingly suffered from hypertrophic cardiomyopathy. Prior to her death, she was the healthy, vibrant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, who unfortunately were unaware of her hidden medical condition. One day while at P.E. she suddenly fell to the ground with no pulse. When her teachers noticed her condition, they responded and began CPR. Plaintiffs alleged that the School District was negligent because her teachers failed to timely respond, identify her condition, render first aid, and call 911. At the time, teachers out in the field did not carry walkie talkies, and one of the teachers had to run back to the school to call 911. I represented the School District and the teachers, who themselves, were traumatized by this emotional experience.

At the conclusion of trial, Plaintiff asked for $3,000,000 and I argued that the School District and their teachers had responded appropriately to this unfortunate incident.

The jury began deliberations in the late afternoon and had to return the next day to conclude their deliberations. They returned a verdict in favor of my clients. I felt immediate relief as they returned their verdict, and my clients wept as they hugged me. This was the first case that I had truly been emotionally invested in representing my clients. It was a horrific incident for the Plaintiff Parents, as well as my clients. I truly believed that my clients were not negligent in any of their actions and was grateful that they were vindicated by the jury. However, at the same time, my joy was dampened understanding the pain Plaintiffs were going through in having lost a daughter.

This was another case where opposing counsel was extremely professional and ethical in his representation of his clients as well as his dealings with me. It reaffirmed that you could practice law, and zealously represent your client while still being civil with opposing counsel, as well as being able to have empathy for the opposing party.

Your role in the case: Lead Counsel and only Counsel.

CASE NO. 3

Case name and date: Chris Anderson, Barbara Anderson v. Ryan Headd, Rex Headd; Case No. 02A452042-C; February 24, 2005.

Court and presiding judge and all counsel: Eighth Judicial District Court, State of Nevada, Clark County, Dept. XI; Judge Elizabeth Gonzalez; Plaintiffs represented by Steven R. Bangerter, Esq., and Alan Bryce Dixon; Defendants represented by Blair C. Parker, Esq.

The importance of each case to you and the impact of each case on you: This case involved an automobile accident with moderate property damage with admitted liability. Plaintiff Chris Anderson alleged severe soft tissue injuries and a brain injury. He had numerous experts and medical providers all testifying as to his brain injury and disability. I represented the Defendants in this matter. Because Defendants only had $500,000 in insurance coverage and Plaintiffs were demanding in excess of $3,500,000, with plenty of treating physicians to back Plaintiff's claims, I made a pre-trial offer of judgement for $500,000, which was quickly rejected by Plaintiffs. After a week-long trial, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the Plaintiffs for $26,000.

This was another stressful case in that Plaintiffs demands far exceeded my clients' insurance coverage, which the insurance company had already offered to the Plaintiffs, thus arguably leaving my Client personally exposed. Additionally, it was my least favorite jury trial because of my experience with Plaintiffs' Counsel, who was from out of state. A month prior to trial, Plaintiffs' attorney had sent me numerous newspaper articles outlining his success and large jury verdicts. His demeanor throughout the case was very aggressive, and I felt he had an air of superiority. There was no collegiality during this case. Because Plaintiffs had failed to beat my clients' offer of judgment, Plaintiffs ended up owing my clients' attorney's fees. Plaintiffs agreed to forego any appeal if my clients waived their rights to attorneys' fees, which we did. I was thrilled to have prevailed on behalf of my clients, and yet felt a little cheapened by the fact that part of my excitement was also based on defeating Plaintiffs' Counsel. I also learned that thorough trial preparation helped alleviate some of the stress.

Your role in the case: Lead Counsel and only Counsel.

CASE NO. 4

Case name and date: Teresa Piano v. Golden Gate Casino; Case No. A-11-635921-C; October 22, 2012.

Court and presiding judge and all counsel: Eighth Judicial District Court, State of Nevada, Clark County, Dept. 26; Judge Gloria Sturman; Plaintiff represented by Blair C. Parker, Esq., and James L. Edwards, Esq.; Defendant represented by Karie Wilson, Esq. and Mari Schaan, Esq.

The importance of each case to you and the impact of each case on you: This case arose from a trip and fall incident outside the Golden Gate Casino on Fremont Street. Plaintiff, Teresa Piano, then 93 years old, was visiting from California. While proceeding on Fremont Street, Ms. Piano tripped on the corner of a portable bar constructed and maintained by Defendant. As a result of the fall, Plaintiff sustained a fracture to her femur as well as soft tissue injuries to her shoulder. Defendant contested liability arguing that the portable bar was open and obvious, and that Plaintiff was the cause of her own injuries.

Teresa Piano had sought numerous attorneys to take her case but had been turned down by all of them on the bases of arguable contributory negligence and her age. We decided to take the case because we believed our client and felt the Defendants were solely at fault for the incident. Additionally, Ms. Piano was the sweetest Italian Immigrant and treated us like her children, bringing her cooked Italian food to us every time she visited.

Defendants refused to make any meaningful settlement offers, thus the case proceeded to trial. Plaintiff had past medical specials of $8,100 and future medical specials of $900. At the conclusion of a four-day trial, the jury returned a verdict in the amount of $120,000 for our client.

Representing clients like Ms. Piano made the stress and the worry of trial worth it, even if we had lost. We felt honored to have represented her and felt gratified that the jury recognized the value of a 92-year-old Italian Immigrant's life and the pain that had been caused, despite the minimal medical specials. Defense Counsel was professional, ethical, and a pleasure to work with.

Your role in the case: Co-Counsel with James L. Edwards. After forming Parker & Edwards, we decided to try every case together, regardless of its size. I also realized how nice it was to have Co-Counsel to share the load.

CASE NO.5

Case name and date: Amelia Beckstead and Lisa Derrwaldt v. Complete Care Medical Center, Pasqual Laurito; Case No. A-14-701192-C; November 9, 2016.

Court and presiding judge and all counsel: Eighth Judicial District Court, State of Nevada, Clark County, Dept. 27; Judge Nancy L. Allf; Plaintiff represented by Blair C. Parker, Esq., and James L. Edwards, Esq.; Defendant represented by Greg Cortese, Esq.

The importance of each case to you and the impact of each case on you: This was a wrongful termination case that involved the firing of Ms. Beckstead and Ms. Derrwaldt by their employer, Pasqual Laurito, after it was disclosed that each one of them had become pregnant during the year. Defendants claimed they had been fired for other legitimate reasons. I represented the Plaintiffs in this matter and argued that my clients were wrongfully terminated by the Defendants in violation of NRS 613.330, and 42USC 2000 (Title VII) and breaching the covenant of good faith and fair dealing. After a bench trial, Judge Allf rendered a decision finding in favor of my clients and awarding Ms. Beckstead damages in the amount of $320,425, and Ms. Derrwaldt damages in the amount of $381,000. This is the first time I had represented a client making a wrongful termination claim. I enjoyed broadening my area of practice.

Your role in the case: Co-Counsel with James L. Edwards.

21. Do you now serve or have you previously served as a mediator, an arbitrator, a part-time or full-time judicial officer, or a quasi-judicial officer? To the extent possible, explain each experience.

Justice Court Judge Pro Tempore, Clark County Nevada – 2000 – Present.

I grew up in Boulder, Colorado where my father was a Law Professor at The University of Colorado. These two experiences have helped to shape who I am. I was the 5th of 7 children in a moderately conservative family, growing up in Boulder--a very liberal place. Having a father as a law professor, I grew up knowing that there are two sides to every argument. I was raised to appreciate differing opinions and to always keep an open mind. This has benefited me in every aspect of my life, especially in my legal profession. However, occasionally in family life, my wife or children have had to gently remind me that sometimes they just want someone to hear their side and not necessarily espouse a differing position. My home was also one where continual learning was encouraged and promoted. This not only applied to formal education, but the education of life. I was taught that the only time learning and seeking knowledge stopped, should be when you are dead. My parents also instilled in me the importance of looking for the good in others instead of concentrating on the negative, as well as the blessings of service to others. My parents embraced diversity, and countless times we had hitchhikers passing through town, for Sunday dinner that my parents had just met. Humor was always encouraged, except if it involved the disparagement of any gender or culture.

My voluntary 2-year mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints also helped form my values at a very crucial period in my life. As a typical 19-year-old, I often felt that the world revolved around me, and every decision was evaluated as to its impact on me. Serving in the Philippines allowed me to experience a new culture and cultural values and to see the best in human beings. I was struck by the poverty and living conditions, many of which were dirt floors, no electricity, and one room. Aside from being able to share my religious views, I was able to serve and work with the people in planting and harvesting rice and building or fixing houses. When I first arrived at 19 years of age, I was struck with the country's poverty, and when I left at 21, I came to realize how rich the people were in their goodness and values. They obtained happiness despite their condition, or lack of wealth. I also learned how to do hard things. I was young, living away from family, with limited contact with them for 2 years. It was a formative experience for me at a crucial point in my life and helped to build character, set my values, and helped me to recognize what things brought me happiness. I also learned the benefit of serving others and appreciating different religious, political, and life views. My mission turned out to be one of my most effective educational experiences.

My legal partners with whom I have practiced have also had a profound impact on my legal career. They have all been highly ethical, unwilling to cut corners, and very professional. They have balanced the rigors of practicing law, while maintaining a healthy life outside of the law. I have appreciated their willingness and example of extending professional courtesies to opposing counsel, where appropriate, and looking at fellow attorneys as colleagues in the practice of law and not adverse parties. I have tried to incorporate the lessons I have learned from those I have practiced with, in serving as an Arbitrator, Justice of the Peace Pro Tempore, and as a short trial judge. They have all helped shape me into the attorney I am, and the reason I feel I would make a great District Court Judge.

- 49. Attach a sample of no more than 10 pages of your original writing in the form of a decision, "points and authorities," or appellate brief generated within the past 5 years, which demonstrates your ability to write in a logical, cohesive, concise, organized, and persuasive fashion.

RESPONSE TO QUESTION # 47
(PERSONAL STATEMENT)

RESPONSE TO QUESTION #47
OF JUDICIAL SELECTION APPLICATION

I believe my experience as a Justice of the Peace Pro Tempore has exposed me and prepared me to sit as a Judge. In this capacity I have had opportunity to hear small trials, deal with requests for temporary restraining orders, evictions, and imposing fines. I have had to balance what the law requires as well as have empathy for those who have trusted the Court to deal with them fairly. It is a humbling and rewarding experience.

I also serve as an Arbitrator and have been assigned to preside over 450 cases, resulting in over 172 actual hearings. This is somewhat similar to a bench trial, in that I have been the one deciding on evidentiary rulings, and ultimately making a decision as to who should prevail.

I believe my experience as a Short Trial Judge, however, sets me apart from the other applicants. Serving in this capacity has given me the best experience and preparation to be a full-time Judge. I was one of the original appointees to the short trial program when it was first instituted. I was only able to obtain records going back to 2007, which show that from that date to the present, I have been appointed to 101 short trial cases and presided in over 42 short jury trials. Serving in this capacity has allowed me to make every decision a Judge would make on a case, including discovery disputes, motions for summary judgment, motions in limine, settling jury instructions, holding pre-trial conferences, impaneling juries, ruling on objections, and overseeing the trial to see that it is held in an orderly and respectful fashion. After the Jury has rendered its verdict, I then oversee all post-trial motions. This experience has been one of the most rewarding of my legal career. It has allowed me to associate with great attorneys and assist them in resolving cases either through settlement before trial, or through the trial process. I have learned from seasoned attorneys who have appeared before me, as well as new attorneys who are not afraid to think outside the box as to how to argue or present a case. I have been impressed with the professionalism and ethics of those who have come before me, and it has been invigorating. After each trial I have made a note as to what arguments the attorneys made that were effective, how they best presented their case, and how they dealt with certain issues. Additionally, after each trial I evaluate my own service to the case and look for ways to improve or become more effective in assisting the Parties. I have enjoyed the whole experience and feel that I have improved with each trial I presided over.
