BEYOND TRAUMA-INFORMED CARE: BECOMING A TRAUMA-INFORMED COURT

Location: TBD

Speaker: Brian L. Meyer, PH.D., LCP. (Sponsored by NDCI)
(1.5 hours CEU/CJE/CLE)

Description: This trauma training curriculum is specifically designed to meet the needs of judges as the primary audience. The content and accompanying teaching tools such as videos focus specifically on judges and other court professionals. Topics include defining trauma; the extent of trauma in justice involved individuals; the impact of trauma on substance use, mental health, and behavior; secondary/vicarious trauma; and steps on becoming a trauma-informed court. In addition, specific evidence-based screens, assessments, and treatments are discussed. The workshop is interactive and participatory with time for questions and problem-solving.

THE SEQUENTIAL INTERCEPT MODEL: UNDERSTANDING OPPORTUNITIES TO COORDINATE WITH HEALTHCARE PARTNERS

Location: TBD

Dan Mistak, Director of Health Care Initiatives for Justice-Involved Populations at Community Oriented Correctional Health Services (COCHS)

(1.75 Ethics hours CEU/CJE/CLE)

Description: Across the country, specialty courts are finding that they can achieve better outcomes for their clients, improve access to services, and create long-term funding strategies for their programs by partnering with health system partners. In the next two sessions, Stephanie Woodard and Dan Mistak will help you understand the opportunities available for improved collaboration with health system partners. The speakers will highlight the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration's Sequential Intercept Model (SIM) to identify opportunities for diversion to health programs and better collaboration with health partners. The session will feature lessons from across the country and examples of how Nevada is already deploying the SIM to direct clients to appropriate settings. The session will also feature state regulatory changes that states are deploying to improve access to healthcare partnerships that can improve the operations of your specialty court.
